JEAN MARLOR

Jean died on December 30th after a long illness. She was passionate about history and conservation and was a founder member of our society. Jean served as Chairman from 1992 to 2011. She was also a founder member of Tameside Local History Forum and The Heritage Consultation Group. Jean also represented the society on the Denton and Audenshaw District Assembly. Her husband, Joe, also a member, died some years ago and, despite her own problems, Jean has been devoted to the care of their son, David, to whom, along with John and Anne and all the family, we send our sincere condolences.

Our front cover shows Jean, second from right, on an enjoyable society visit to The Mayor’s Parlour. Overleaf, we have a pictorial tribute to Jean with a small selection of photographs taken over the years.
